There have been eleven rate changes this year. The areas of practice whose rates have changed are highlighted in bold print.

Those Members who have a “Foreign Practice” (as defined in the Explanatory Notes) and would like Bar Mutual to cover that practice must complete a separate renewal form in relation to it. A surcharge of 25% will be applied to the premium payable for Foreign Practice (for example, fee income from Personal Injury will be rated at 1.25%, instead of the “normal” rating of 1.00%).

There is no premium deferral for 2022/23. The minimum premium remains at £136 (£121 plus insurance premium tax at 12%). The income cap remains at £1.2m.

Limit of Cover is determined by the amount of the Basic Contribution, as follows:

Basic Contribution	Limit of Cover
£100 - £399	£500,000
£400 - £599	£1,000,000
£600 - £799	£1,500,000
£800 - £999	£2,000,000
£1,000 plus	£2,500,000

A Member may, by payment of an Optional Contribution, purchase cover up to a limit higher than that to which his Basic Contribution entitles him or her. For a Member wishing so to do, the cost of increasing the limit of cover to the next band of cover will be the fixed sum referred to in the table below or the difference between the barrister’s Basic Contribution and the minimum premium for that band, whichever is the lesser, with each additional band of cover being charged at the relevant fixed sum.

Cover Required	Extra Premium
£500,000	£100
£1,000,000	£100
£1,500,000	£100
£2,000,000	£100
£2,500,000	*

* Bar Mutual is not providing cover in excess of £2,500,000 but will forward Members’ forms onto TLO who will be able to provide quotes.
