BAR MUTUAL

1 INSURING CLAUSE

- 1.1 Subject to the provisions of these Terms of Cover, Bar Mutual shall indemnify the Insured against any and all Claims which are first made against him during the Period of Insurance in respect of any and every description of Civil Liability whatsoever arising out of or in any way in connection with the Insured Practice whensoever and wheresoever the act or omission or other circumstances or event giving rise to such liability may have occurred.
- 1.2 Bar Mutual shall indemnify the Insured for Claims by a solicitor for payment of all or part of the solicitor's fees under a conditional fee agreement between the Insured Member and that solicitor, only if and to the extent that:
- (i) the conditional fee agreement entered into by the Insured Member and the solicitor is in a form previously approved in writing by the Directors;
 - (ii) the Claim arises under a clause in that agreement which the Directors have identified as giving rise to an obligation in respect of which the Insured is entitled to be indemnified by Bar Mutual; or
 - (iii) the Directors have resolved, and notified the Members in writing, that obligations under that clause are covered by Bar Mutual.

In giving their approval to any form of conditional fee agreement, the Directors shall be entitled to impose terms as to the maximum amount to be indemnified or such other terms as they, in their absolute discretion, think fit. The Directors may also withdraw such approval, or modify the terms upon which cover is given, provided always that not less than one month's notice of such withdrawal is given to the Members.

- 1.3 Bar Mutual shall indemnify the Insured against Defence Costs.
- 1.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms of Cover, Bar Mutual, in its absolute and unfettered discretion and on such terms as it may think fit, may indemnify the Insured in respect of any Circumstance or Claim or any loss, costs or expenses (whether or not arising from or involving any Circumstance or Claim), notwithstanding that the Insured is not entitled to be indemnified by Bar Mutual in respect of the same and/or notwithstanding that the same may fall outside the scope of or within the exclusions contained in any insurance which is afforded to the Insured by virtue of these Terms of Cover.
- 1.5 Provided that they comply with the provisions of these Terms of Cover as if they were themselves the Insured, an Insured's personal representatives shall be entitled to be indemnified by Bar Mutual against all Claims on the same terms and to the same extent as the Insured (if alive) would have been entitled to be indemnified under these Terms of Cover.

2 LIMIT OF INDEMNITY

- 2.1 Subject to the provisions of this clause, the liability of Bar Mutual shall be limited to:
- (i) the Limit of Cover, and in addition
 - (ii) Defence Costs.
- 2.2 If a sum in excess of the Limit of Cover has to be paid in order to dispose of any Claim, Bar Mutual's liability in respect of Defence Costs shall be in the same proportion as the Limit of Cover bears to the sum paid to dispose of the Claim. In the event of Bar Mutual having already indemnified the Insured in respect of Defence Costs, Bar Mutual shall be entitled to recover from the Insured such proportion of them as may exceed that proportion of the sum paid in order to dispose of the Claim as is represented by the Limit of Cover.
- 2.3 If a Claim becomes the subject of proceedings before any tribunal in the United States or Canada and is resolved (whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise) in accordance with the law of such jurisdiction, the additional cover afforded by clause 2.1(ii) shall not apply, and all

- 2.5 The indemnity provided by Bar Mutual under these Terms of Cover may be provided in its absolute discretion in any one or any combination of the following ways:

 - (ii) by payment in respect of the Claim and/or claimant's costs and/or Defence Costs to or to the order of the Insured against whom the Claim is made;
 - (iii) by payment in or towards discharge of Defence Costs to or to the order of the legal advisers, adjusters or other persons by whom or in respect of whose services such costs and expenses were incurred.
- 2.6 If VAT is payable upon any element of the indemnity provided by Bar Mutual to any of the Insured who is registered for VAT, such VAT shall be paid and accounted for by such Insured and not by Bar Mutual.

- 4.1 Subject to the provisions of these Terms of Cover, Bar Mutual shall not be entitled to avoid, repudiate or rescind any insurance or any liability thereunder to the Insured or to claim damages against the Insured on any grounds whatsoever, including misrepresentation, non-disclosure, or breach of condition or duty.

BAR MUTUAL

- 4.2 If an Insured
- (i) has fraudulently misrepresented or fraudulently failed to disclose any material fact, or
 - (ii) notifies any Claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent,

Bar Mutual shall be entitled to claim damages and/or to avoid the insurance and/or to refuse to indemnify the Insured. In such event Bar Mutual may in its absolute discretion, notwithstanding any such avoidance of the insurance or refusal to indemnify, satisfy all or any part of any Claim made against the Insured responsible for such fraud (including the claimant's costs) by paying the same to the claimant. In such circumstances, Bar Mutual shall be entitled to recover any amount so paid from the Insured responsible for such fraud.

- 4.2 Where any misrepresentation or non-disclosure that does not otherwise entitle Bar Mutual to avoid the insurance has resulted in Bar Mutual effecting the insurance for a lower consideration than would have been the case if the correct and full facts had been disclosed, the Insured shall pay to Bar Mutual such additional contribution as Bar Mutual would reasonably have required if the correct and full facts had been disclosed to it.
- 4.3 Where any breach of these Terms of Cover has prejudiced Bar Mutual in its handling of any Claim against the Insured, the Insured responsible for such breach shall reimburse to Bar Mutual the difference between the sum paid by Bar Mutual in respect of the Claim and the sum which would have been payable in the absence of such prejudice.
- 4.4 Where in any Disciplinary Proceedings the Insured is sentenced to a suspension from practice for a period of in excess of three months or disbarment, Bar Mutual shall be entitled to recover from the Insured any costs and expenses incurred by Bar Mutual in defending the Disciplinary Proceedings and any sum paid to indemnify the Insured against any costs order made against him in any Disciplinary Proceedings.

The Insured shall co-operate with, and provide all reasonable assistance to, Bar Mutual in connection with any Circumstance, Claim or Disciplinary Proceedings notified pursuant to clause 5.
- 6.2 Neither Bar Mutual nor the Insured shall be required to contest or continue to defend any Claim or Disciplinary Proceedings unless a Queen's Counsel (appointed by agreement or by the Chairman of the Bar Council in the absence of agreement) shall advise that, taking due account of the interests of both Bar Mutual and the Insured, such Claim or Disciplinary Proceedings should be contested or continue to be defended. Bar Mutual and the Insured shall agree to be bound by the opinion of the Queen's Counsel, which shall be treated as having been given as an expert and not as an arbitrator. Liability for the Queen's Counsel's fee for advising under this clause shall lie with the party against whose contention the Queen's Counsel advises.
- 6.3 The Insured shall not settle any claim for indemnity, contribution or recovery, nor surrender any right to the same, without the prior written consent of Bar Mutual. The Insured shall not admit liability for any Claim or incur any costs or expenses in connection therewith or incur any costs or expenses in connection with Disciplinary Proceedings without the prior written consent of Bar Mutual.
- 6.4 Subject to sub-clause 6.5, Bar Mutual shall take all reasonable steps to inform the Insured of any proposals for settlement and shall not admit liability for or settle any claim without the written consent of the Insured.
- 6.5 Bar Mutual shall be entitled to settle any claim without the prior written consent of the Insured if:
- (i) the Insured does not give written notice refusing his consent to a settlement recommended in writing by Bar Mutual within 28 days (or such shorter period as Bar Mutual may stipulate where the circumstances require) of the recommendation being sent to the Insured; or
 - (ii) it is not possible or permissible to obtain instructions from the Insured and where Bar Mutual believes in good faith that settlement is necessary to protect the interests of the Insured and/or Bar Mutual.
- 6.6 If the Insured refuses to consent to a settlement recommended in writing by Bar Mutual, Bar Mutual's liability in connection with the Claim shall not exceed the sum for which it could have been settled and the Defence Costs up to the date when such settlement could have been effected.
- 6.7 If the Insured offers to settle and/or settles any Claim, Bar Mutual shall be under no liability to indemnify him in respect of that offer and/or settlement or to pay any costs or expenses incurred in connection with the same, unless
- (i) Bar Mutual approves the settlement, or
 - (ii) (a) the Insured has notified Bar Mutual in writing of the proposed terms of settlement; and
(b) Bar Mutual has given its written consent to the proposed terms of settlement or has failed within 28 days of receipt of the said notice to give written notice to the Insured objecting to the proposed terms of settlement.

BAR MUTUAL

- 6.8 If any payment is made by Bar Mutual in respect of a Claim against the Insured, Bar Mutual will be subrogated to all rights of the Insured of indemnity, contribution or recovery to the extent of that payment.

7 DISPUTES AND GOVERNING LAW

Any difference or dispute (other than one arising pursuant to clause 6.2) that may arise between Bar Mutual and the Insured out of or in connection with these Terms of Cover shall be referred to a sole agreed arbitrator (or in default of agreement to a sole arbitrator appointed by the Chairman of the Bar Council), whose decision shall be final and binding.
